WHAT IS PASSPORT TO LEISURE?

Here at the Wyre Forest Sports and Leisure Centres, including the Wyre Forest Glades, Stourport Sports Centre and Bewdley Leisure Centre, we are committed to achieving our aim of "Start, Stay, Succeed". This scheme is designed to increase activity levels and improve health by offering reductions on a wide range of activities for those on a low income.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

Anyone who receives benefits identified on the opposite page.

WHICH ACTIVITIES ARE DISCOUNTED?

Passport to Leisure offers 50% discount on individual activities including gym, swim and exercise classes. Please contact your local centre for more details.

WILL THERE BE A CHARGE?

There is a small charge for the card which is payable when you start your Passport to Leisure and every 6 months thereafter.

To qualify for Passport to Leisure you must be living in The Wyre Forest and either be:

- A full time Student
- Registered Disabled
- On Income Support
- Receiving Council Tax Benefit
- In receipt of Jobseekers Allowance
- Registered homeless
- Foster Carers and Looked After Children

If any of the above apply then you too could be enjoying many of our facilities at a discounted rate. Please note: proof of eligibility is always required along with proof of address.

There will be a small charge every 6 months to reissue your card, please contact your local Centre for more details. Working Family Tax Credit on its own does not qualify you for our Passport to Leisure Scheme.

A one-off fee will be charged for gym inductions, please contact your local Centre for more details. Please note: you cannot pre-book sessions with this card.
